I. General Information

Please provide information about the sale, closure, or new location of the business, if applicable. *

- 1. [X] Business was sold. Date sold: 5/12/2004 Name, address and phone number of buyer: buyer name buyer address : buyer phone
2. [] Business closed. Date of closure:
3. [] Business moved. Date moved: New address:
4. [X] Yes [] No Was there a substantial change in the physical assets at this location prior to January 1? *
If yes, explain: Reason for substantial change in the physical assets here
5. How many square feet does your business occupy? * 1,200
If you are located in a multi-tenant facility, provide only the square footage your business occupies.
6. A property owner in whose opinion the aggregate value of tangible personal property is less than $20,000 need only render:
1) the name and address of the owner,
2) the general description of the property, and
3) the physical location or taxable situs of the property.
Although not required for personal property less than $20,000, the Dallas Central Appraisal District recommends that you provide historical cost and acquisition dates of your assets.
7. How many persons are employed by this business? * 50
If the property owner is a business with 50 employees or less, the property owner may base the estimate of value on the depreciation schedules used for federal income tax purposes. Although not required for a business with 50 employees or less, the Dallas Central Appraisal District recommends that you provide historical cost and acquisition dates of your assets.

[] By selecting this box, "I affirm the information contained on the rendition form filed in prior tax year 2009, with the same DCAD account number, continues to be a complete and accurate rendition as of January 1st of this year in accordance with Texas Property Tax Code Section 22.01" and no additional assets were purchased, sold or disposed and inventory remains the same."

If your property's value is $20,000 or over, list the property's "good faith estimate of market value" or the property's historical cost when new and the year it was acquired.

* If reporting by cost, in each category, report the full amount reflected on the books and records of the business or attach a complete explanation of any adjustments, including fully depreciated assets. If possible, attach depreciation schedules, asset ledgers, IRS Schedule C, trial balances, inventory control, or other evidence supporting the costs provided. If there are special circumstances related to your personal property that need to be considered, attach statements describing the circumstances.

II. Merchandise and Supplies

For the purposes of this rendition, "inventory" means your inventory of finished goods, raw materials, work in process and supplies, including all applicable burden or overhead costs. Report separately goods in warehouses or storage and goods in transit. Figures must be as of close of business December 31 or adjusted thereto.

1. Check basis of figures: *
