INSTRUCTIONS: If you want the appraisal review board to hear and decide your case, you must file a written notice of protest with the appraisal review board (ARB) for the appraisal district that took the action you want to protest. If you are leasing the property, you are subject to the limitations set forth in Texas Code, section 41.413.

FILING DEADLINES: The usual deadline for filing your notice (having it postmarked if you mail it) is midnight, May 31.
A different deadline will apply to you if:
 * your notice of appraised value was delivered to you after May 2;
 * your protest concerns a change in the use of agricultural, open-space or timber land;
 * the appraisal district or the ARB was required by law to send you notice about a property and did not; or
 * the ARB made a change to the appraisal records that adversely affects you and you received notice of the change;
 * in certain limited circumstances, you had good cause for missing the May 31 protest filing deadline.
 Contact the appraisal review board for your specific protest filing deadline.

POSTPONEMENT: You are entitled to one postponement of the hearing without showing good cause if you have not designated an agent to represent you at the hearing and you request the postponement with the appraisal review board before the date of the hearing. You are also entitled to postpone your hearing if you or your agent show good cause for the postponement. "Good cause" is defined in Texas Tax Code, section 41.45(e-2) as a "reason that includes an error or mistake that: (1) was not intentional or the result of conscious indifference; and (2) will not cause undue delay or other injury to the person authorized to extend the deadline or grant a rescheduling."

Step 3: Check reasons for your protest	Failure to check a box may result in your inability to protest an issue. If you check "value is over market value," you are indicating that the appraised value is excessive and your property would not sell for the amount determined by the appraisal district. If you check "value is unequal as compared to other properties," you are indicating that your property is not appraised at the same level as a representative sample of comparable properties, appropriately adjusted for condition, size, location, and other factors. Your property may be appraised at its market value, but be unequally appraised. An appraisal review board may adjust your value to equalize it with other comparable properties.
